Dear Mr Narayanadayya

Will you please see my D.O of 11-4-03 re the Railway workers pay & kindly obtain orders for money to pay them. They are in a very disturbed & discontented & may give up work at any moment which will stop work. There is a demand for men now from private firms & if we lose them cannot easily replace men. The matter has become very urgent & I am sorry to trouble you again

Yours sincerely
G Hammersley

Very urgent

Subd to Secy Revt Dept

The Dewan desires that an immediate advance of Rs 5000 may kindly be made to Diwan Bahadur for payment to piece Workers in the Govt Press who have been without pay for the last seven months. The amount may be adjusted when the application for Rs 10000 made by the Press Supdt is sanctioned by H.H. the Maharaja.
